Charles Barr, the famous yacht skipper who sailed the Reliance, Columbia, Westward and other noted yachts, died suddealy here this morning, of heart disease.

and this rather nettled the British yachtsmen when he sailed to victory three defenders of the America's cup. He was born at Gourock, near Glasgow, on July 11. 1841. He was a brother of the late John Barr, who in his time was the most successful racing skipper on the other side and later continued his successes in America. When a boy Charles Barr spent much of his sparetime sailing small craft on an esturary of the Clyde. Although his family were mostly sailors, he was apprenticed to a grocer, but as soon as he served his brother on yachts in the summer and fishing in the winter.

In 1887 Capt. John Barr was chosen to sail the Thistle, the Scotch challenger for the America's cup, and Charley went as one of the crew before the mast. The Thistle met the Volunteer in these waters and was beaten. The inhabitants of Gourock could never understand that defeat and there are still some who blame the Barrs.

Capt. John came to this country and settled in Marblehead, and later his brother Charley came, bringing over the forty footer Minerva, which he sailed in her races on this side. She won many prizes until the Gossoon was built. Capt. Charles too settled in Marblehead, and from the time of the Minerva he had always had yachts to sail during the season. Becoming more and more skilful, he finally attracted the attention of owners of large yessels.

NAMES ON CATHEDRAL COLUMNS Trustees Give Out a List of Those to Be Honored.

The trustees of the Cathedral of St John the Divine, after their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home Park, announced the list of names which will be engraved on the eight huge columns behind the sanctuary. The names are those of Alonzo Potter, Bishop of Pennsylvania, 1800 to 1865; Col. Richard Auchinuty, once a trustee of the cathedral; Harry Manigault Morris, 1817 to One of the reasons the court gave for turning down the application of the Wendover Athletic Association was that the certificate mentioned a definite date for holding the annual meeting, and in some years this date would fall on Sunday.

Among the certificates turned down Trades the donors of the columns, who made the some years this date would fall on Sunday.
Among the certificates turned down were those of the Alied Printing Trades tlub and Associate Members. Houston Street Citizen Pedlers Association. Kind Land Yee See Sor Society. Theta Nu Epsilon Society, and the Twenty-second District Senatorial Club.
